

Fiction Response Journal

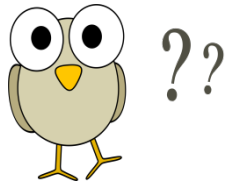

After you read from your book, write down something about it and your reaction to it.

Here are some ideas to get you started.

1. Begin each response with the book title and the date of your journal entry.

Then choose one or two of the following:

- Tell about what happened in the story.
- Ask questions about things that confuse you or that you wonder about.

I wonder why _____

- Describe your feelings about the characters, setting, or the events.

I feel _____

- Copy down a quote from a character and tell why you think it's meaningful.

shutterstock · 186676523

I think _____ will happen next because _____

- Describe a part that surprised you:

I was surprised when _____

- Write a letter to the author or a character.

Dear

Author _____

- Draw pictures or create graphic organizers.